

THE KATE ESCAPE

Oh, to be Kate Moss. She was joined on her week-long holiday by the fashion elite, led by Yves Saint Laurent designer Stefano Pilati and legendary model Karen Mulder. While the group lounged around on the luxury yacht, Serenity, Kate made sure it stayed a fashion event as she walked around in a series of catwalk-worthy outfits that included a retro-inspired denim and gingham bikini from Agent Provocateur. Later the 35-year-old changed into a red minidress when she left the boat to go shopping before once again joining her boyfriend, Jamie Hince, for a romantic swim, while close friend Stefano took photographs. Lucky we're not

Main photo and right: Kate modelling the Agent Provocateur bikini. Far left: Kate with Stefano Pilati, Jamie Hince and Karen Mulder. Left: off shopping

